THE LATTER DAY SAINTS.

THEIR PRESIDENT INTERVIEWED BY A REPORTER.

He Says None of Them Have Renounced Their Faith, and That Their Interests are Too Great to Relinquish Without a Struggle—The Edmunds-Tucker Law.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 20.—President Wilson Woodruff, of the Mormon church, is a person much sought for but rarely seen by the unconverted. As the head of the Mormon church, he is a person upon whom all legal papers must be served in connection with the enforcement of recent legislation against Mormonism.

Through the courtesy of Woodruff's son, a reporter recently procured an interview with the venerable president. He was found in a quiet retreat four miles from the city. He said:

"I am used to hiding, though I am always accessible to members of the church who are arrested for their faith. The government has closed in on us pretty hard, but though polygamy is practically abandoned here, yet as one of the tenets of the faith it is as much endorsed by the church of Latter Day Saints as ever. Though the government is vigorously prosecuting our people, not one of us have renounced our faith. Our vested interests here are too great to relinquish them without a struggle.

"The country has been improved and this city built up on a faith that the government seeks to suppress. They are interfering materially with the work on our temple. We still have our missionaries abroad in all countries. If the persecution here is continued we may possibly remove to Mexico, though entire removal seems to me almost impossible.

"It is true that we have entertained this idea for some time, many of our people having already gone there. The immense farm belonging to the church is worth $1,000,000 or more. The temple, co-operative store, and all other church property are now in the hands of receivers appointed by the government.

"The Mormons resort to many shrewd practices by transferring property among themselves to avoid its seizure."

The Edmunds-Tucker Law.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 20.—The appointment by President Cleveland of four probate judges for four counties in Utah is made under the Edmunds-Tucker law, and within the next few weeks there will probably be one appointed for each county in the territory. It is just that many Mormons cuts off another leverage which has heretofore been within their grasp. The law provides that as the terms of judges expire the successors shall be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate.

FOUR NEW CASES.

The Weather Unfavorable at Jacksonville.

Vessels in Quarantine.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 20.—Up to 2 o'clock Friday, four new cases were reported. Miss Kate Hedrick, Robert Grace, the keeper of the subterranean buildings; William Adams, of East Jacksonville, and Miss Alice Hayes, of Laura street.

The sun is blazing hot notwithstanding the rain storm of Thursday night. The consensus theory is still being tried every night.
Huge fires of resin and coal tar are burning all over the city.

A Case of Chagras Fever.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—The steamship Earlwell, from Santiago, is being detained at the quarantine station below this city, owing to the fact that she had on board a sailor ill with Chagras fever, and that a sailor died on board of yellow fever a few days ago. She will be thoroughly fumigated and disinfected before being allowed to proceed to the city.

The vessel passed Delaware breakwater without stopping at the National quarantine station there. A recent act of congress makes it compulsory for all vessels from the island of Cuba to stop at the breakwater for examination. The case will be investigated by the customs officers.

In Quarantine.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Surgeon-General
Hamilton received a telegram from Surgeon Clarkson, at Fortress Monroe, saying that he had quarantined the British ship Athens, seven days out, from Pensacola to Newport News, as he found on board a case of homatensis with collapse. Word was sent back to anchor her in the north channel until further developments.

LAWLESSNESS IN KANSAS.

Trouble Between Hugoton and Woodsdale Expected to Break Out Again.

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 20.—One of the officers of the militia company which has returned from Stevens county relates that there is every prospect of an other outbreak between Woodsdale and Hugoton, as the people of the former place avow they will be revengeful for the death of their four citizens.
The situation in Grant county, he said, is also so strained that the citizens asked Gen.
Myers to leave one company at each of the towns, Cincinnati and Ulysses, as between these places the bitterest rivalry exists over the county seat question. Both towns are paying numbers of lawless characters from the neutral strip $1 a day and board to remain within their border, so that they can vote on the county seat question in about thirty days.

A complication has arisen in the fact that Hugoton and Woodsdale men have taken sides with the rival towns of Grant county.
Arms are said to be in possession of the belligerents. Each side is afraid of the other, hence the request for troops.

Charged Off the Other Man's Nose.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 20.—During a quarrel Friday between John Jenkins and George Ferrall, two local toughs, the latter had his nose chewed off. Jenkins endeavored to escape, but was captured and locked up, charged with mayhem.

Wouldn't Cut 'Is Thistles.

AKRON, O., Aug. 20.—Gaylor Bishop, a well-to-do farmer of Tallmadge, has been brought into court here on the novel charge of allowing Canada thistles to ripen to seed on his lands.

SPORTING NEWS.

"The Marine" Knocks Out John Varley.
Other Spritling Matters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The officers of the steamboat Patrol ran alongside the barge E.
Myers, at 5 o'clock a. m., and arrested 105 persons who were witnessing the prize fight between La Blanche, "the Marine," and John Varley, middle-weight champion of England. The fight had just ended in Var-ley's being knocked out at the end of the third round, which occupied eight minutes.
Capt. Smith, when he boarded the barge, found a number of leading celebrities engaged in new occupations. For instance, Jack Dempsey was acting as stoker; "Snapper" Garrison, as a bartender; Jack Fallon, of Brooklyn, as a salesman at the lunch counter, and so on.

Muldoon Defeats Tom Cannon.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.—Muldoon is still the undisputed champion of the wrestling art.
Friday night, at the People's theater, he battled for over an hour and a half with Tom Cannon, who recently won the championship of Australia, and triumphed. It was an exciting combat, stubbornly fought, and Muldoon was deservedly the victor, as he outclassed his opponent in every point, and would have won much more easily had the weather been favorable. The match was arranged some two weeks ago, the winner of the last two out of three falls in three, Greece-Roman style, to be declared the victor and awarded the house receipts. Muldoon won the first fall in eighteen minutes; Cannon the second in twenty-one minutes, and Muldoon the third in thirty-one minutes.

Yacht Races.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 20.—In Friday's yacht race from New Bedford, the Mayflower beat the Puritan half an hour. The Sachem won in the first-class schooners, the Bedouin in third-class sloops, and the Papoose in the sixth-class sloops.

Knocked Out in Thirty Seconds.

ASHLAND, Wis., Aug. 20.—Johnny Murphy, the Buffalo middle-weight, was knocked out by Tommy Warren, of Minneapolis, in thirty seconds, here Friday night.

Sporting Notes.

Winners as Brighton Beach races Friday were Mina W. Brian Boru, Trix, Bill Brien, Wilford and Raymond.

Sandusky and Mansfield have been allowed to withdraw from the Tri-State League, and the other clubs will finish the season.

E. L. Breckenridge, pitcher of the Logan-sports, is in much demand. He has offers from Chicago, Indianapolis and other clubs.

William Lang defeated F. Moore in a hundred yard sprint race at Akron, O., Friday. Time, 10 seconds. William Smith, Moore's backer, mortgaged his home and went broke on the race.

LOUISIANA RACE WAR.

Thirteen Negroes Meet Death at the Hands of White Men.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20.—News has been received here of a race war at Free-town, in Iberia parish, in which E. Payson Smith, of New Iberia, was killed, in addition to some thirteen or fourteen negroes. Some time ago several disreputable colored men were ordered to leave New Iberia, but instead of going they collected all their friends together and drew some four or five hundred other negroes into a scheme to defy the whites.

The colored men, armed with rifles and shotguns, congregated at Free-town, where a band of whites visited them and demanded of them that they lay down their arms. The majority of them complied and were not molested. Some fifteen or twenty, however, barred themselves in a house and opened fire upon the whites. E. Payson Smith was killed, and the whites then returned the fire.
The negroes became panic-stricken, and in fleeing from the house thirteen of them were killed.

Smith was forty-two years of age, a baceler and a native of Ohio. He has been in Louisiana only a few years. He was a popular citizen, and took part in many public enterprises.

Another Race War.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—A Tribune special from Chattanooga, Tenn., says: From Round Mountain, Ala., comes news of bloody race riots. James Elliot, proprietor of a blast furnace, discharged his force of white men and employed negroes instead.
The white men became enraged and swore the blacks should not work. Shotguns, pistols and knives were used, and a lively skirmish followed. The wires were cut and news comes slowly, but it is said that the trouble is at an end.

Devilish Deed of a Young Monster.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 20.—A remarkable case of youthful crime is reported from Jernigan, Ala. A ten-year-old son of a tenant upon the plantation of H. F. Lindsay having been left at home by his parents to nurse his baby brother, became enraged at the infant, deliberately built a fire, heated some water to a boiling heat, forced a cupful down the baby's throat, thereby scalding it to death.

Brother and Sister Killed by Lightning.
GREENFIELD, Mass., Aug. 20.—Deacon Loving, aged ninety, and his sister and housekeeper, Mrs. Richardson, were instantly killed by lightning about midnight, and the farm-house, barns and buildings burned. The scene of the tragedy is in the town of Gill.

Wife Murderer Hanged.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Aug. 20.—Alex. Wood was hanged Friday at Blackfoot, Idaho, for the murder of his wife in March, 1887. He was sentenced to be hanged July 31, but with Williams, who was hanged that day, broke jail, and was not recaptured until the time had gone by. He died cool and collected.

Two Boys Drowned While Bathing.

ALTON, Ill., Aug. 20.—Alvin Fuld, aged nineteen, and Clarence Sherman, aged thirteen, were drowned yesterday while bathing in the Mississippi. Their bodies have not yet been recovered. They belonged to prominent St. Louis families.

The Result of Jealousy.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 20.—Adolph Holman, a grocery wagon driver, shot and killed himself and wife yesterday and wounded his mother-in-law. Jealousy was the cause.

A BIG DYNAMITE SCARE.

NEWPORT, KENTUCKY, ALL TORN UP WITH EXCITEMENT.

A Workman at the Iron and Steel Works Discovers Seventeen Loaded Bombs in a Pile of Scrap Iron—Where They Came From a Matter of Conjecture as Yet.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.—They are enjoying a first class dynamite scare over in Newport.
About 10 a. m. Friday a workman at the Newport iron and steel works, while engaged in sorting some scrap iron, ran across a piece of gas pipe about seven inches long and filled with something.

He reported his find to Secretary A. P.
Gahr and others. The workman was ordered to continue his search, and succeeded in discovering seventeen genuine dynamite bombs out of three tons of scrap iron. These bombs were of the description of those made by the Chicago Anarchists, and used in the murderous work of the Haymarket.

Naturally the finding of these bombs created a great sensation about the works.
A little sober reflection showed that the bombs were not placed there with the intention of blowing up the works, or injuring anyone connected therewith. The iron among which the bombs were found was old railroad iron, and was bought from junk men and dealers in the usual way.

The supposition is that the bombs were shipped with a lot of scrap iron from Chicago. It is thought that the maker or owner of the bombs had become fearful of their being discovered in his possession, and had them in some garret or out-of-the-way place, where they had been discovered by a servant or wife, who, unaware of their character, had sold them to some junk dealer. In this way they had found their way to the Newport iron and steel works.

The company has already commenced an investigation. Fifteen of the bombs were carefully sunk in the Licking river. The other two are on exhibition at Mr. Gahr's office. One of these have been opened and found to contain dynamite.

THE BOMB FAILED TO EXPLODE.

A Close Call for Cold Water Advocates at Manheim, Pennsylvania

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 20.—At a Prohibition meeting in a tent at Manheim, this county, on Thursday night, while addresses were being delivered by Rev. Kellogg, of Michigan, and Luther P. Kaufman, of this city, a gas pipe bomb, five and one-half inches long and three-quarters of an inch bore, tightly packed with gunpowder, plugged at both ends and a fuse attached, was lighted by some miscreant. It failed to explode.

The bomb was not discovered until Friday morning, and it was thought to be a hoax, but on being fired in two, the serious nature of the thing was made known. There was an audience of 500 people present, mostly of women and children, and the result of an explosion would have been very disastrous.
This is the culmination of a series of rotten egg and other disagreeable receptions the Prohibition speakers have met with since they started out to stump the county. Who placed the bomb there is not known. There is great excitement at Manheim, and the authorities are endeavoring to trace the raffians.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS

As to the Cause of the Collision Off Sable Island.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Nothing new has developed in reference to the cause of the frightful collision between the Thingvalla and the Geiser. The Danish consul has concluded that the investigation shall be held in the courts at Copenhagen and not in this country, as was first intended. The passengers who wish to go over and the survivors of the crew will sail to-day on the Slavonia of the Kuhnhardt line. The loss to the Geiser is $350,000 and the loss on the cargo $120,000. The full amount of the insurance has not been ascertained.

Jansen Castberg, a young druggist, who was a passenger on the Thingvalla, states positively that the Thingvalla's whistles were not blowing before the collision occurred.

Until the lists of tickets sold by the company's agents at Worcester, Mass., St. Paul, Minn., Chicago and Philadelphia are compiled, no complete or correct list of the lost can be given.

It now appears that there was no fog when the collision took place, but it was raining very hard and a heavy sea was running.

KILLED BY A COMRADE.

A Marker in a Pennsylvania Rifle Pit Accidentally Shot.

CAMP ORD, CONNEAUT LAKE, Pa., Aug.
20.—The Second brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, Gen. Ivey commanding, closed its annual tour of duty Friday on the shores of Conneaut lake. There were 3,000 men in the camp, comprising regiments all over western Pennsylvania. The Fourteenth regiment, of Pittsburgh, had gone to the rifle range.

Private Charles Lacey, of Company C, was sent out as a marker. Two or three shots were fired, and when Lacey failed to score an investigation was made and Lacey was found dead, lying in the bottom of the rifle-pit with a ragged hole in his neck and a portion of his face blown off. The unfortunate marker had raised up without giving the signal. His tent mate, Charles Kaiser, shot him accidentally. An impressive funeral in camp was held Friday night.

Will Erect Another Corn Palace.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The first contract for corn for the decoration of the Sioux City corn palace has been let. The contract is for eighty acres, which will amount to about four thousand bushels.
Over thirty thousand bushels will be required. There has been apprehension that corn would be too late for the palace, but early fields will be in time.

Wonderful Gasser at Wabash.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 20.—Natural Gas Well No. 4, of the number which will supply this city, was shot Friday with astonishing results. The gas flow is simply wonderful, and it is estimated that the daily output of the well is now 3,000,000 feet.

BASE BALL.

Standing of the League and American Association Base Ball Clubs.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.—The two leaders—
St. Louis and Brooklyn—sustained defeat Friday, and the last named club fell back into third place, Cincinnati taking position next the champions. It has been a long time since Cincinnati occupied second place, though on several occasions they have been within one or two points of tying Brooklyn. The clubs rank as follows:

	Won.	Lost.
St. Louis	50	29
Cincinnati	45	34
Brooklyn	47	38
Athletics	53	34
Baltimore	39	53
Louisville	35	55
Cleveland	32	56
Kansas City	28	61

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—There were but two battles fought on League grounds Friday, and, as the tail-enders did the fighting, the result has little bearing on the race for the penultimate. Ruth saved Detroit from another reverse after New York had scored two runs.
Philadelphia found it an easy matter to shut out Pittsburgh, while Indianapolis took advantage of another one of Fuller's "off days," and piled up nine more runs in one inning than Washington could get together in eight. This is the record:

	Won.	Lost.
New York	54	31
Chicago	51	36
Detroit	47	40
Philadelphia	47	42
Boston	44	45
Pittsburgh	37	45
Washington	35	53
Indianapolis	32	59

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

The Association for the Advancement of Science Discussing It.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 20.—At the Association for Advancement of Science papers on the Nicaragua ship canal, by R. E. Peary, of United States navy, chief engineer of the Canal Construction company, and J. C.
Houston, were read. Mr. Houston says the latest survey shows that by utilizing all the natural basins and creating artificial ones in the valleys, only about one-sixth of the entire route of the canal, which is 170 miles long, will have to be excavated. Abundant labor of good quality and sufficient supplies of provisions are available.

If the canal were opened to-day it would find four and a half millions tons of traffic within the zone of its attraction, half from United States ports. This will be swollen to 6,000,000 when the canal is opened, say in 1894. Civil Engineer Peary's paper gives an elaborate and minute account of the recent surveys executed on plans formulated by Chief Engineer Menocal, of the United States navy, which he says have given extremely satisfactory results.

Two routes have been completely surveyed and mapped out. These routes are of about equal cost, and either is superior to any other route across the isthmus.

WHILE DIGGING A WELL.

Father and Son Meet Death Near Steubenville, Ohio.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Aug. 20.—Friday morning George Owens and his son were digging a well in Island Creek township, north of this city. As the father was hoisting a bucket of dirt, the rope of the windlass broke and the bucket fell, striking his son on the head. As soon as assistance could be procured, the father was lowered into the well, where he fastened a rope around the insensible body of his son, who was drawn to the surface.

The rope was again lowered, and as the father was being hoisted and it was almost to the top, it again broke, and the man fell the entire distance of twenty feet, breaking his neck and causing instant death. Before he could be removed from the well the son, whose skull was badly crushed and both shoulder blades broken, died, and the dead bodies of both were taken to their home.
Mrs. Owens, who was in a delicate condition, was so prostrated by the shock that her life is despaired of.

Cardinal Gibbons at Toledo.

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 20.—Cardinal Gibbons is here to settle the differences of opinion which exist between the nuns and Bishop Gilmour regarding the possession of St. Vincent's orphan asylum, the nuns claiming that the title vests in their order, while the bishop claims that it vests in himself for the diocese over which he presides. The charge that Cardinal Gibbons is here to investigate alleged misconduct on the part of members of the Catholic clergy and laity in this city is indignantly denied. He has just been in attendance upon the jubilee at Notre Dame, Ind. He leaves for the east to-morrow, and during his stay in this city a number of the leading Catholic clergyman in this vicinity have called upon him.

Free Fight at a Dance.

OTTAWA, Ill., Aug. 20.—Details of a terrible tragedy at Prairie Center, fifteen miles north of here, have reached this place. A dance was given by a number of Norwegians, which was attended by over one hundred couples. Whisky flowed freely and all were more or less intoxicated. About midnight two young men got into a fight over a partner for the dance and one of them was stabbed. At this the men present look sides and revolvers and knives were used freely. Eight are reported either shot or stabbed, four of whom may die. No arrests have as yet been made.

Miner Crushed to Death.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 20.—John H. Allen, a miner, was caught by an ascending cage in the Nickel Plate mine and instantly killed.
He was forty years old, and had just arrived here from Ohio, where he left a wife and five children. This was his first day's work.

A Ship Yard Saw Mill Burned.

BAY CITY, Mich., Aug. 20.—The Blue, new saw mill at James Davidson's ship yard, in West Bay City, burned this morning. Loss $35,000; no insurance.

Lynched for Stealing.

SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 20.—A negro was lynched near Big Cypress bayou, in Bossier parish, for stealing some money from a store.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
 GROVER CLEVELAND,
 of New York.

For Vice President,
 ALLAN G. THURMAN,
 of Ohio.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District: I beg leave to submit to you my name in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. I have no claims to urge over those of any other true Democrat, and make my announcement with some degree of timidity. I hope to make the primary contest in such a manner as not to create discussion or division in the ranks of the party, and, whether I lose or win the nomination, I propose to remain in the same unflinching Democrat I have always been. Respectfully, G. R. KELLAR.
 Carlisle, Ky., July 17, 1888.

The Mills Bill—What It Means.

As we said in a former article the Mills bill reduces the average rate of duty on imported goods from $47.10 to $42.46 on the $100 worth, which is a reduction of precisely $4.64 on each $100. The total reduction of the revenue derived from imports by this bill as it passed the House of Representatives amounts to $50,591,636, and of that sum $30,832,791 are reductions on the dutiable list and $19,758,845 are reductions made by putting certain articles on the free list. These are all the reductions proposed by the bill and yet it is denounced as a free trade measure, by Republicans who are trying to continue the war tariff upon the country. The reduction proposed by the bill is less than $5 on the $100 and yet the so-called protectionists claim that it will ruin all the manufacturing interests in the United States. Is $42.49 of taxation on every $100 worth of dutiable goods free trade? It is enormous taxation and if levied on the wealth of the country would not be permitted to stand an hour. Is there any State in the Union that imposes a tax equal even to 5 per cent?

In all the States money collected as taxes comes into the Treasury from lands, houses, bonds, stocks, notes, horses, cattle, and all kinds of property. The citizen who pays taxes knows exactly what it is for, and no party and no administration could remain in power in any State in the Union any longer than it would take to get it out that would impose a tax of $5 on the $100. If an attempt was made to collect such a tax it would incite insurrection. But a tax of $4.49 levied on the products of labor and disguised by the methods of indirection adopted in its collection is boldly proclaimed a free trade measure.

The tariff of 1846 was framed to raise revenue, and for that purpose only, and it was called by both parties a free trade tariff. The tariff of 1857 was a low tariff also and framed for revenue purposes alone. That too was called a free trade tariff. But nobody in the whole land took the ground that the policy born with the Government of raising revenue by duties on imports should be abandoned. The period covered by these tariffs was known as a free trade period simply because the foreign commerce of the United States was not then fettered by obstructions in the interest of individuals and monopolists.

If there is any person so foolish as to believe there is any free trade in the Mills bill, we advise him to go and examine its provisions carefully. He will admit it he is not too prejudiced, that there is not the slightest shadow of a foundation for such a claim.

Now let us examine the bill. The Democrats have not interfered with the liquor schedule nor the silk schedule, because they believed that those who used the articles embraced in those lists could afford to pay the duties levied upon them by the existing law. The tobacco schedule when the bill was considered by the Committee of the Whole was stricken out.

The Democrats have tried to reduce the duties upon the necessities of life because the great body of the people are compelled to have them, and to cheapen these articles means cheaper living.

The first schedule of the Mills bill covers all drugs and chemicals brought into the country from abroad. The average rate of duty on this list under the existing law is $32.87. The bill reduces the average to $28.17, which is a reduction of $4.70 on the $100. The so-called protectionists claim this will destroy the home manufacture, because labor is so much cheaper in foreign countries. That is not true because the whole labor cost is only 10.9 per cent. If the labor in the United States was 100 per cent, higher than in foreign countries, which it is not, then 6 per cent. would fully cover the difference, but the Democrats propose to leave a tariff of 28.17 per cent, which is more than twice the labor cost. It can not be claimed with any truth that there is danger to the chemical industry by a reduction of 4.7 per cent. But there is another thing that ought to invite attention. The tariff is levied, the Republicans claim, to protect American labor and the protection is 32.87 per cent. How is it then that the laborer gets only 10.9 per cent?

The next list revised by the Democrats is earthen and glassware. The present duty is $59.55 on every $100 worth; by this bill it is placed at $52.17. A reduction is thus made of $7.38 on the $100 worth, leaving a tax of $52.17 upon the consumer for every $100 worth brought into this country.

One of our consuls in England has written to the State Department that the average labor cost of earthenware in the United States was 46 1/2 per cent, and in Staffordshire, England, 47 1/2 per cent. If this be true, our labor is cheaper to the manufacturer than foreign labor. Hence this alarm about cheap foreign labor is nonsensical. But if foreign labor cost literally nothing, then there is per cent. enough left to pay the whole labor cost of our manufactures. The labor of earthen and glassware as shown by the census of 1880 was 41 per cent., and the Mills bill leaves as a tariff $52.17 per cent. Why is it that the $59.55 per cent. levied by the Republican high tariff for the protection of American labor did not get to the laborer, only 41 per cent. having found its way to his pocket?

The other provisions of the Mills bill will be treated in an article to follow this.

The Johnson and Martin County Democrats are reported to be in favor of the nomination of Colonel L. T. Moore, of Catlettsburg, for Congress.

What's the matter with the West Virginia Democrats? Well, they are all right, and are solid for Cleveland and the "Old Roman." Their State convention at Huntington Thursday has demonstrated that to the satisfaction of all.

Says the Mt. Olivet Democrat: "One Republican of Mason expresses himself as thankful that Alexander's election was not made unanimous, and quotes the preacher on them who passed his hat around among his congregation and failing to get a penny remarked: 'Thank God, I have got my hat back.' He seems thankful that they have the poll-books left that carried their candidate's name."

THEIR ORGAN FLOPS.

The Scandinavians of Minnesota Favor Cleveland, Thurman and Tariff Reform.

ST. PAUL, MINN., August 13.—The Svenska Folkets Tidning, the most widely circulated Scandinavian paper in the Northwest, announces that it can't support General Harrison for President. Seen by a newspaper representative, Magnus Lunnar, its editor said: "I cannot stand on the Chicago platform nor support the nominee of that convention. I will say that I heartily favor a radical reduction of the tariff, such as is recommended in the Democratic platform."

"You have always heretofore supported the nominee of the Republican party?"

"Invariably. Our paper has been a Republican paper always. What we will do in the future will depend on the nominees of the two parties for State officers."

"What is the general feeling among the people?"

"Speaking of the Swedes, I can say that they are certainly in favor of a reduction of the tariff. All of the leading papers of the country have taken up that view and the masses are falling into line. The Swedes move slowly in thought, but when they reach a conclusion it's hard to change. The Swedish American, of Chicago, circulates very largely up here. It is warm for tariff reform. As a result it has become independent, and the same is the case with other influential papers. All of these, you must bear in mind, were Republican papers. There were no Democratic Swedish papers, and only a few years ago there were no Democratic Swedish voters. Now, they begin to be independent and the tariff question is at the bottom of it all."

"What do you think will be the attitude of the masses of your voters?"

"I believe many of them will this year vote their first Democratic ticket. They made a start in 1886 for Ames and will increase their number this year. No, it was not McGill that started them, but the personal popularity of Ames that carried them off. For the most part they will remain Democrats and will increase their number. There is an active and actual issue now, and they are rampant for low tariff."

Seventy per cent of the Scandinavians who will this year vote in Minnesota, came here since the war, and have neither knowledge of or use for the Republican cry of "who saved the country?" The tariff is a one living issue, and upon it most of the Scandinavians are with the Democrats. Accessions to the Democratic party from the ranks of Republicans, Swedes and Norwegians are reported every day, and this fact is the greatest cause of anxiety in the secret councils of the Republicans.

NO. 3 EAST SECOND ST.

THE FLAG OF GERMANY

NOW FLOATS OVER FOURTEEN PORTS OF ZANZIBAR.

The Teuton Triumphs Over John Bull—William's Speech Attracts Great Attention—A Spanish Conspiracy Discovered at Madrid—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Advices from Zanzibar say that the sultan has officially transferred the administration of the coast line to the German company, whose flag, jointly with the sultan's has been hoisted at fourteen ports. When the flag were hoisted they were greeted with the royal salute. The Italian envoy has not yet renewed his relations with the sultan.

This is a German triumph over England. Formerly the latter controlled the sultanate, and the trade between Zanzibar and India was considerable.

Some years ago she relaxed her hold and ceased to be the sultan's protector. Then the German East African company stepped in under the wing of Germany and began acquiring territory on the mainland from native petty chiefs. This led to diplomatic quarrels, and a delimitation of spheres of German and English influence. This is the outcome: Germany virtually owns Zanzibar, with its population of 800,000, and administers the mainland ports with their trade of about $1,500,000 yearly. Italy quarreled with the sultan over some guaranteed rights of trade. She will now have to settle with Germany.

The Emperor's Speech.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The speech of Emperor William has attracted universal attention and elicited many varied views from the English journals and officials. All are agreed that it was very injudicious thus to remind France of her loss, and boastingly proclaim the intention to retain what had been won. All agree that France must necessarily be irritated by the speech, and feel certain that trouble is brewing in consequence of its delivery as a part of the ceremonies incident to the perpetuation of the memory of one of Prussia's most conspicuous leaders in the Franco-Prussian war.

Many profess to believe that it was uttered in a moment of enthusiasm, suggested by his surroundings, and was but half meant. This excuse, however, is hardly consistent with the fact that the German press uniformly approve his words, and the sensitive boast of Europe experienced a depression Friday, taking his declaration as a prophecy of conflict. Europe cannot escape the conviction that the emperor of Germany believes the central alliance to be no sufficient guarantee of peace, and that he fully expects it to be broken. Specifically, he expects Russia to take the initiative, when it is not doubted in Germany France will assuredly strike for the recovery of her lost provinces.

About the Same as Last Year.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Many leading politicians are of the opinion that there is as much need for the powers to increase the efficiency of their armies as there was a year ago, and the powers themselves seem to think so too. Those politicians who entertained the opinion that excellent personal relations had been established between Emperor William and the czar by the recent Imperial interview are now surprised at the warmth which the semi-official Russian press criticizes the tension between France and Italy respecting Moscow, directly charging Germany with creating the situation in order to weaken France, and warning Germany that in the event of the latter power joining Italy, Russia would not stand idly by with France again being conquered.

The speech of Emperor William on Thursday at the unveiling of the monument to Prince Frederick Charles, the hero of the Metz, was undoubtedly meant as an answer to these attacks and plainly indicates that the recent meeting at St. Petersburg has had no effect upon the antagonism existing between Germany and France, as it shows that the great Balkan problem has been brought no nearer to a peaceful solution than it was before the meeting of the emperors.

Are There Two of Them?

SAKUM, Aug. 20.—Pilgrims from Sokoto, who have arrived at Sakum, have traveled through the Congo and Bahr-el-Ghazal districts, say that they camped for four days on the Congo with a large force led by white men, and armed with Remington rifles.

The trouble with this dispatch is that it is a year and a half since Stanley left the Congo, at the mouth of the Aruwihini, and struck out through a wilderness toward Wadala.

"Ireland Under Coercion."

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Times devotes five columns to a review of Mr. William Henry Hurlbert's book, "Ireland Under Coercion," which is published in two volumes. Mr. Douglass, the eminent Edinburg critic, prefaces the Times' extracts by saying that Mr. Hurlbert is an American, well known in English and continental society, and his volumes, though quite different in character, are no less interesting than the Baron Grancey's "Chez Paddy."

Conspiracy Among Spanish Soldiers.
MADRID, Aug. 20.—A conspiracy among the soldiers stationed here has been discovered, and a cavalry officer and several sergeants and privates have been arrested for participation in it. A strict watch for a similar disclosure is maintained at Saragossa and Lerida.

Foreign Notes.

The Japanese government has decided to spend £10,000,000 in five years in purchasing men-of-war.

The Egyptian government has protested against the establishment of an Italian protectorate over Zulu.

The Tories and Liberals respectively propose to raise funds for the prosecution and defense of the Parnell suit against the London Times.

Emperor William has paid a visit to Gen. Von Moitke, who had come to Berlin to thank his majesty for his recent appointment as president of the country defense.

A terrific wind and rain storm has devastated upper Austria, doing great damage to crops and orchards. Lightning set fire to twenty houses in the Ischl district, and a woman and two children were killed. The ground is covered with dead cattle and birds.

The statement now going the round of the European press that the removal of Field Marshal Kuhn from the Austrian army was followed by the retirement of Count Von Moitke from the German army as an initiative step toward the reorganization of the Austrian and German armies on more effective scales, is ridiculed by leading military critics, at least so far as Austria is concerned.

The promotion of Waldersee to the place of Von Moitke is an assurance to Germans that Bismarck will have nothing to do with the army. With Waldersee's appointment as personal organ, and every one wonders whether the bitter controversy of the past few weeks between the Kreuz Zeitung and North German Gazette in any way indicated a struggle going on between their inspirers.

Mme. Pelouse, sister of M. Wilson, has been declared bankrupt. Her liabilities amount to $600,000. It is announced that on September 15 the historical Chateau Chenonceau, the upset price of which is $40,000, and the residence in Paris will be sold at auction. The property will probably be bought by the Grevy family.

A PROMINENT PROHIBITIONIST

Indicted at Flemingsburg, Kentucky, for Selling Tangle-Foot.

FLEMINGSBURG, Ky., Aug. 20.—The grand jury returned two indictments against Hon. J. W. Crain, of Hillsboro, this county, for violating the prohibition law by selling intoxicating liquors. This action has created scandal and consternation among the prohibitionists of this county. Crain is the author of the prohibitory law in force here, and was the member from this county in the legislature when the measure was adopted, and was chairman of the committee on law and morals there.

Crain is now a member of the vigilance committee or law and order club, which has for its object the enforcement of our prohibition law. Recently he signed a petition to the circuit judge of the district to call a special term of the grand jury here to indict violators of the anti-liquor law. Persons who have known him for years are at a loss to account for his inconsistent positions, and to understand the dual life he is leading. His political and temperance friends are full of anger and will be remorseless in his prosecution. The specific charge in the indictment is that he sold divers bottles of intoxicating whiskey between August election day. The case against him is plain. Crain is fifty-five years old and a church member.

FEMALE FOOTPADS.

Three Chicago Women Assault a Man in the Street.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Early this morning the notorious Minnie Daly, Lucy Arado and Hella Wright attempted to rob a stranger on Madison street in front of the Brevort house. Two of the women grabbed him while the third struck him several times in the face with a pair of brass knuckles. The man shouted for help, and Officer Ahren went to his rescue.

At the sight of the officer a cab driver threw two of the women into his cab and started away at a rapid pace. Minnie Daly made her escape through an alley. The officer followed the cab and caught it at the corner of Canal and Adams. The women and the driver were placed under arrest and locked up at the armory.

One the way to the station one of the women pulled out a large roll of money and offered the officer $100 to allow them to go free. The man who was assaulted was carried to a doctor before the officer returned. His name could not be learned.

At Paris, Ky., Beecher Jones, colored, failed to inspire Martha Lewis with that depth of tender feeling required to win a lady's "yes." She has it now as the result of the pounding he gave her when she substituted a decided "no." Martha carries her broken head in a sling while Beecher muses his shattered heart behind the bars.

FOR OLD PEOPLE!

In old people the nervous system is weakened, and that must be strengthened. One of the most prominent medical writers of the day, in speaking of the prevalence of rheumatic troubles among the aged, says: "The various pains, rheumatic or other, which old people often complain of, and which materially disturb their comfort, result from disordered nerves." There it is in a nutshell—the medicine for old people must be a nerve tonic.

Old people are beset with constipation, flatulency, drowsiness, diarrhoea, indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia. These diseases are of nervous origin. Faine's Celery Compound, that great nerve tonic, is almost a specific in these disorders, and by its regulating influence on the liver, bowels, and kidneys, removes the disorders peculiar to old age. Old people find it stimulating to the vital powers, productive of appetite, and a promoter of digestion.

Sold by druggists. $1.00. Six for $5.00. Send for eight-page paper, with many testimonials from nervous, debilitated, and aged people, who bless Faine's Celery Compound.
